South Australian Film Corporation Program Guideline

- 3.0 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
- 3.07 SHORT FILM DEVELOPMENT

03.07 SHORT FILM DEVELOPMENT (PILOT)

- › Increasing the production of quality short films by supporting South Australian writers to develop creative and original short screenplays.

what is the scheme?	The intention of the Short Film Script Development (pilot) fund is to develop quality projects by providing talented emerging writers the environment to work openly and collaboratively with professional story developers to enhance their script.
what projects are eligible?	Eligible projects include those that meet all of the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none">/ be a short live-action drama under 25 minutes in length, with a preference for screenplays under 15 minutes (in order to secure screenings at major international festivals)./ not be optioned or assigned to any director or producer (the South Australian Film Corporation will assist projects to attach appropriately skilled directors and producers at the end of the program)./ have the potential to be produced through the South Australian Film Corporation Short Film Fund (although entry into this development fund does not guarantee any other production funding)
who is eligible?	In addition to the eligibility criteria detailed in the General Guidelines, eligible applicants must: <ul style="list-style-type: none">/ be a South Australian-based writer or writer/director/ be the originator of the script or treatment or the holder of the copyright or have an option on all relevant rights in the project; and must be able to deal in the rights for the project./ be able to demonstrate an option on the work with the right to deal in the work for a minimum of two years, renewable for a further extended period of two years.
what is offered?	The South Australian Film Corporation provides up to $2,000 in development investment to the writer to develop a scene breakdown and up to three drafts of the screenplay with the assistance of an SAFC appointed script developer. The South Australian Film Corporation will endeavour to match completed scripts with appropriately credentialed Producers and Directors upon completion of the development phase.
what special conditions apply?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">/ This fund is not an entry-level program./ It is expected that writers have engaged with screenwriting previously but may not have works produced. However published novelists or produced playwrights are encouraged to apply. Writer/director applicants must have directed at least one (1) non-student short film./ Up to two (2) screenplays in standard industry layout will be accepted from each applicant per round./ Development funds are made available as a development investment. Recoupment of the development investment, and a 10% premium, must be paid to the South Australian Film Corporation on first day of principle photography. The South Australian Film Corporation will consider converting its development investment to equity investment should the project go into production./ The South Australian Film Corporation will take a small share in the present and future copyright in the work until the investment is repaid, at which point the SAFC will reassign its interest.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> / The South Australian Film Corporation reserves the right to attach credentialed producers and directors to the project with meaningful consultation from the writer upon completion of the development phase. The writer may not assign the rights to any third party without prior approval of the SAFC. / Full-time students are not eligible to apply. Part-time and post graduate students are eligible only where the film does not form part of the assessable material for the course.
how do I apply?	The application process is detailed in the General Guidelines. After reading the General Guidelines and confirming eligibility, applicants are asked to discuss their applications with an Industry Development and Production project officer prior to submitting an application. Application forms are available online at www.safilm.com.au.
