Conference Subsidy

Australian International Documentary Conference (AIDC 2026)

South Australian Film Corporation

Established in 1987, the Australian International Documentary Conference (AIDC) is the Asia-Pacific's premier event for documentary, specialist factual and unscripted entertainment. The AIDC operates Australia's only dedicated documentary and factual media market. The conference brings together international and national decision makers and buyers and hosts a range of pitching opportunities with market partners.

AIDC 2026 will take place from 2–5 March in Melbourne and 11–12 March online.

What is on offer?

- Passes available are for mid-career and established South Australian factual producers, providing a 50% discount on the purchase of an All Access Pass to the conference
- To support the aims of the SAFC Diversity and Inclusion Strategy, early career factual key creatives from under-represented backgrounds are also eligible for this subsidy.

Successful applicants will receive a link from the SAFC to apply the discount when they register for an AIDC All Access Pass.

For more information on passes, please visit the AIDC website.

Who is eligible?

The SAFC defines credited as mid-career to established applicants with the ability to raise finance in the market having delivered at least one of the following (with a credit in the role in which they are applying to this fund):

- A television or episodic project released on broadcast TV or an SVOD platform
- A feature film released theatrically or via an SVOD platform or has received 40% Producer Offset
- A short film in official selection at A-list festival (See the SAFC Terms of Trade for qualifying A-List Festivals)
- A narrative online work with more than 1 million views or a channel with more than 100K subscribers
